Hard Blow Thrown at Medicare

Key Democrat In Opposition; Bottleneck Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A damaging, and possibly fatal blow was delivered today to prospects for congressional passage this year of President Kennedy's medical care program for the elderly.

One of the Democrats who had been tentatively counted upon to help pry some compromise version out of the House Ways and Means Committee disclosed that he would vote against the measure.

"I don't intend to vote for it this year," Rep. Clark W. Thompson, D-Tex., told United Press International.

Thompson's opposition raised grave doubt administration forces would be able to break the committee bottleneck that has blocked congressional action for five years on bills to add hospitalization insurance to cash benefits of the Social Security program.

The showdown vote is expected next month.

Thirty Rallies Planned

Thompson spoke out just five days in advance of simultaneous rallies that will be staged by medical care supporters in 30 big cities in an effort to whip up "grass roots" pressure on Congress.

President Kennedy will lend his prestige to the rallies next Sunday afternoon with a nationally televised address from New York City's Madison Square Garden.

Thompson said he was opposed to action this year on Kennedy's proposal because he wanted to see how the present Kerr-Mills program of federal aid for the medically needy works out in his home state. He said the Texas Legislature only this year brought the state into this program.

Mills Refuses Backing

The Texan was the second of the committee's 15 Democrats to voice public opposition to providing medical care for the elderly under the Social Security program. Committee Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said earlier this year that he did not see how he could support the legislation.

To muster a majority of 13 votes in the 25-man committee for some compromise version of Kennedy's bill, the White House must either: Win support of every one of the remaining 13 committee Democrats; or pick up a vote from the Republican members to match every additional Democratic defection.

There is considerable doubt this can be accomplished.

Indians Authorize Suit If City Fails Zoning

A federal court challenge of reasonable and expeditious by the tribe is seeking new zoning which would include Section 14 in mid-town Palm Springs, but would not be exclusively for that section, Simpson said. Current guest ranch zoning on most Indian lands is restricted to single family residence development by city ordinance, unless a conditional use permit is granted, the legal counsel recalled.

"Both the planning commission and the city council have indicated they will not be liberal with conditional use permits pending adoption of a new city zoning ordinance," Simpson emphasized. Simpson explained that the action would be based on a 1936 opinion by the Interior Department solicitor general that neither states nor their political subdivisions have zoning jurisdiction on Indian owned lands held in trust by the federal government.

If the action is taken in court, it would not apply to lands now sold, Simpson emphasized, but would apply to both allocated and unallocated lands. The only unallocated lands within the city limits are the eight-acre Spa site, and the site of the Indian cemetery on Tahquitz-McCallum Way east of Avenida Caballeros, Simpson explained.

The court test — which could affect city controls on approximately 13 square miles of Indian land within the city limits — would not be a test of police and fire protection, Simpson said. He explained that any possible checkerboard breakup of policing powers would place an extreme burden on city administration and is not desired by the tribe.

Reports that annexation procedures which took some of the Indian lands into Palm Springs are subject to legal question is not raised in the possible action, Simpson said.

The Agua Caliente Tribal council has repeatedly called for new zoning on Section 14, Simpson said, recalling April statements by the tribe calling for acceleration of city zoning. The tribe had been assured in February 1961 that a new zoning ordinance would be prepared for tribal review within approximately a month, the Indians reported. Further delays have been deemed an undue burden on development of the Indian lands.

City officials will join the builders in a ceremony at El Mirador Hotel tomorrow marking the start of construction on the 91-unit, $1,200,000 expansion program announced last year by owner Ray Ryan.

The program at 10:30 a.m. also will mark the first showing of an artist's rendering of the new wing of El Mirador.

Contractor Ernest W. Hahn's crews are scheduled to erect a 50 by 250-foot three story building at the south side of the hotel's enormous swimming pool.

Among those scheduled to participate in the ceremony are Mayor Frank Bogert, Vice-Mayor Ted McKinney, Ryan, Chamber President Toby Curtis, Architect Jim S. Burns, contractor James W. Hook and Sheri Good, "Miss Palm Springs."

Token Forces For Duty Along Border of Laos

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American officials said today the United States has asked its allies in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific to join it in sending military forces to Thailand.

They said Australia, New Zealand, Britain, Pakistan and the Philippines had been asked to consider the dispatch of small forces to take their place alongside U.S. land, sea and air forces being flown into the area near the border of Laos.

Most of the representatives here of the countries involved were said to have responded favorably to the request. But U.S. officials declined to give their reaction on a country-by-country basis.

Thailand Is Willing

The U.S. request for token allied forces was put before the ambassadors and other representatives of the five countries Tuesday by W. Averell Harriman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs.

Harriman gave the diplomats the reasons for President Kennedy's decision to send U.S. forces into Thailand, which borders Laos and asked that the Allies consider sending some of their own troops.

It would have the effect of giving the operation a regional character and removing some of the element of unilateral American intervention. Thailand invited the U.S. forces but also was understood to be willing to receive small elements from other member nations of the eight-nation Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

So far as could be learned, the only member of the pact not asked for token forces was France. President Charles de Gaulle's government has consistently refused to endorse allied military action in the area in which Paris has now lost virtually all its influence.

Meantime, hope for a diplomatic settlement in Laos was spurred by Russia's renewed pledge to support a cease-fire and work for creation of an independent neutral government in the violence-torn little Southeast Asia nation. Top officials, however, warned against any undue optimism. They pointed out that Communist intentions in the area still were far from clear.

The U.S. military buildup in Southeast Asia was going steadily ahead, with an 1,800-man Marine battle group scheduled to go ashore late today in Thailand, which borders Laos.

The Marines, added to 1,000 U.S. Army troops already headed for the Mekong River boundary of Laos, a 1,200-man Army element to follow and U.S. Air Force and Marine air units, will bring the total American strength in Thailand to about 5,000 men.

Bank on Former Premier

Officials said Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin's reaffirmation, in a conference Tuesday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk of Russia's year-old pledge to support a cease fire and creation of an independent government in Laos was heartening as far as it went.

The real test will come, they said, on the ground in Laos where the Communist-led Pathet Lao rebels appear to be holding their fire after wresting the northwest part of the country from pro-Western royal government forces.

The United States is pinning its hope for a political settlement on neutralist former Premier Souvanna Phouma, who has tried unsuccessfully in recent months to form a coalition with elements of the royal government and the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

Indonesian Invaders Captured

HOLLANDIA, Dutch New Guinea (UPI)—Dutch naval units today captured a boatload of 20 armed Indonesians attempting a landing near Fak Fak in Western New Guinea, Dutch military headquarters announced.

While the seaborne invaders were being thwarted, the communists said, Dutch troops also were attacking a band of Indonesian paratroopers who were dropped near Fak Fak Tuesday.

A Defense Ministry statement in the Hague today said the Paratroopers "have succeeded in establishing an embryo bridgehead on Onin Peninsula, north of Fak Fak Harbor."

The Hague said Tuesday that 140 Indonesian paratroopers had been dropped in two places in New Guinea. But the communiqué issued here mentioned only 40.

Authorities here said the erroneous report was based on confusion over the types of planes used by the Indonesian paratroopers. They said the Indonesians jumped from World War II U.S.-built B25 bombers which were mistaken for the

The communiqué issued by the Dutch forces commander, Rear Adm. Leendert Reeser, said the Indonesians captured in the attempted landing by sea today, were "armed with rifles, pistols and hand-grenades."

The communiqué said Dutch forces were battling the Indonesian paratroopers while the landing was attempted. It said they exchanged fire "within three hours after the dropping" Tuesday.

Estes Summoned; Freeman to Talk

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate investigators disclosed today that Billie Sol Estes has been subpoenaed to appear at congressional hearings on his shattered Texas farm empire and the possible involvement of Washington officials.

A spokesman for the Senate permanent investigating subcommittee also said that many of Estes' records have been subpoenaed and the group plans to request Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman to testify.

A spokesman for the subcommittee, headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said about a dozen new investigators have been assigned to the Estes case, which Tuesday led to the firing of another administration official. He was James T. Ralph, a former assistant agriculture secretary.

Freeman, meanwhile, told a Republican member of the House Agriculture Committee he "would be willing to appear in good time" before congressional investigators looking into Estes' tangled financial dealings.

Several Weeks Away
The Senate hearings are not expected to get underway, the staff investigator told UPI, for another three or four weeks.

He said Estes was served with the subpoena in Texas Sunday. No date for his appearance was set.

Ralph was the fourth administration official to lose his job in the furor over the government's dealings with Estes.

But Republican demands for Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman's resignation brought a ringing endorsement of the cabinet officer Tuesday night from President Kennedy.

Shortly afterwards, Freeman announced Ralph's dismissal.

Freeman said the Justice Department told him it found that Ralph had made long distance telephone calls charged to Estes' credit card.

"This activity," Freeman said, "combined with those disclosed in Dr. Ralph's testimony in Texas regarding his relationship with Estes, does not, in my judgment, measure up to the standards of conduct required for a person representing our government in an overseas assignment."

Ralph, 36, had been training for the new post of agricultural attaché to the Philippines. He had testified previously in a Texas court of inquiry that he accompanied Estes on a shopping trip and tried on suits, but insisted Estes never gave him any clothes.

Estes has been indicted on fraud charges in Texas.

Ralph was the third Agriculture Department official to fall victim to the Estes case.

JANICE WOODS

Springs Girl Wins State Award

Janice Woods, a senior at Palm Springs High School, today was named the winner of the Outstanding Student Award in the state-wide program of the California Savings and Loan League and the Coachella Valley and Santa Fe Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Janice, 18, lives with her parents, the Albert Woods, and a sister, Nancy, 15, at 297 Monterey Road.

Participating in many extracurricular activities, Janice is a member of G.A.A., American Field Service, Girls League, student government, tennis team and the yearbook staff, as well as having achieved high scholastic standing in her four years of high school.

Planning to be a teacher, Janice hopes to attend State College in Fresno where the family formerly lived.

She will be presented with a cash award and an engraved medallion on behalf of the local thrift and home-financing institutions.

The state-wide $50,000 student award program offers financial inducements to encourage students to develop qualities of leadership by participating in a wide variety of school studies and activities.

The plan has been widely acclaimed and approved by educators for giving recognition to an outstanding senior in approximately 475 California high schools each year.

According to a joint announcement for W. H. Smith, president of Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association, and Duane Glover, Manager of Santa Fe Federal Savings and Loan Association, the savings and loan business feels that, by adding to available funds for higher educational purposes, additional young men and women will be able to enter and continue in the college, university, or junior college of their choice.

The cash awards are granted students irrespective of any other scholarship funds or grants-in-aid won by the recipient.

More Red Push Seen by Prophet

By CHARLES R. MOORE
SONOMA, Calif. (UPI) — Adm. Charles M. Cooke Jr., USN (ret.), former commander of the U.S. 7th fleet and a military-political strategist with a remarkable record of accurate prophecy, said today that if the Communists are not stopped in Laos and South Viet Nam they will continue toward conquest of all Southeast Asia.

And that conquest, he said, is just part of their overall plan to communize the whole world.

Cooke said he approved of President Kennedy's action in sending U.S. Marines into Thailand but that the move came late and still was not in sufficient force.

"I would put at least a Marine division in Thailand," Cooke said in an exclusive interview with United Press International. "At the same time I would put a guerrilla-trained division of Marines in South Viet Nam—and on a fighting rather than merely advisory basis."

"Our decision should be to stop and turn back Communist aggression and we should use forces sufficient to do it. We did it in Lebanon. And we did it in Korea, although we did not carry through to victory."

Retired Unwillingly
Cooke was commander of the 7th Fleet from June, 1946 to February, 1948. Retired unwillingly at the mandatory age of 62 in 1948, he continued military activity as adviser to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and frequent consultant to Gen. Douglas MacArthur during the Korean War.

It was at his California ranch that he talked with this correspondent about the latest Far Eastern crisis.

Cooke recalled that in May, 1945, Fleet Admiral Ernest King asked him for a memo on the Navy's role in the postwar years.

Cooke told him that: "Unless the United States prevented it, Russia would expand too fast and too far."

"Unless the United States prevented it, the Communist would take over China."

"In order to carry out U.S. policy, all services must be prepared to carry out local war."

"Nobody believed that," he said today. "until Korea."

Cooke said that in 1948, when the U.S. government ordered its troops out of South Korea, he found it incredible, and said so in an interview with Frank H. Bartholomew, former president and present chairman of the board of United Press International.

He said he considered it "disastrous" in January, 1950, when U.S. government policy put Korea outside U.S. defense lines. The North Koreans, with Russian and later Chinese Communist backing, attacked in June.

Worries Of Threat
When the Korean cease-fire talks began, Cooke warned that if the Chinese Communists were let off without a decisive defeat they would move into North Viet Nam. In 1955 North Viet Nam surrendered.

Cooke said he did not believe the Communists intend to attack Thailand immediately, but that with Laos practically lost the Reds have a pathway to new attacks in South Viet Nam and for threats to Thailand.

"Each time we let them get away with something," he said, "we weaken ourselves. Other countries figure the United States is never going to do anything. As we continue to retreat, we are weakened in the minds of our friends."

Cooke said he does not believe there will be all-out war in the Far East. And he does not believe use of nuclear weapons will be necessary or desirable.

And as to whether the jungles of Southeast Asia are a good place to fight, he said: "North Korea was a helluva place to fight, too."

Turn About Was Double Foul Play

Turn about was foul play both ways, Palm Springs police ruled Tuesday.

Officers, alerted that a teenage boy had flattered a second youth with a husky punch, apprehended the puncher on a charge of simple assault.

After investigation, they also picked up the youth who received the wallop. Youth number two was charged with an explosive assault. Youth two had triggered the incident by tossing a lighted firecracker which reportedly hurt the ear of youth one, officers said. Both were released to parental control.

Constitution Amendment Up for Try

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The chairman of the House Judiciary Committee said today he will try to get congressional approval of a constitutional amendment to outlaw discriminatory literacy tests for voters.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., said he felt a ban on the use of literacy tests to keep persons from voting would command more support as a constitutional amendment than as a regular bill, such as the one the Senate has sidetracked.

The Senate voted 49-34 Tuesday to set aside a regular bill to make a sixth-grade education proof of literacy for voting in federal elections. It shelved the bill for this year, ending a three-week wrangle.

Cellar said that when his committee has cleared a constitutional amendment barring poll taxes, which the Senate has already approved, it would take up the literacy test issue.

Other congressional news: Medicare: A possibly fatal blow was delivered to prospects this year for approval of a medical care for the elderly program under Social Security. Rep. Clark W. Thompson, D-Tex., one of the Democrats who had been tentatively counted on to help get some version of the administration program out of the House Ways & Means Committee, announced he would vote against it.

Philippines: The House Foreign Affairs Committee was expected to approve a new version of a controversial $73 million bill to pay Philippines war claims. Rejection of the original bill by the House last week caused a major rupture between the United States and the Philippines.

No Soup and Chow Lines The Style in New York

NEW YORK (UPI) Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and other diners at one of the world's most famous hotels went without soup Tuesday night because the chefs and waiters were across the street.

Mink-clad matrons also formed stylish chow lines earlier at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel for the same reason.

About 500 of the sedate midtown hotel's waiters, bus boys, cooks, bellhops and elevator operators walked out onto Park Ave. as the noon rush walked in. The service employees struck in a dispute over tips which led to the dismissal of eight waiters Monday.

Johnson was in town Tuesday night to attend the 50th anniversary dinner of the French Institute. Johnson, French Minister of Culture Andre Malraux and about 1,200 others were served by a catchall crew of supervisory personnel and secretaries hastily briefed by headwaiter Alfred Matt.

Candles Lit

"The candles will be lit at 7:30, the butter will be released at 7:45," Matt intoned over a loud-speaker system. "When the green light flashes, proceed to the kitchen and pick up the hot fish plates. When you serve, bend over. It is very important to bend down so that nothing will spill and spoil the expensive dresses."

Matt made a quick decision and ordered his novice serving crew to dispense with the soup course.

Tram Traffic Studied

The Palm Springs Planning Commission is studying an engineering proposal for traffic control at the Tramway road entrance, for possible inclusion in the city's master road plan.

The plan, designed by Tom Esen, public works director, calls for traffic islands at the Tramway entrance and on the proposed San Rafael Road entrance on the opposite side of North Palm Canyon Drive. The Tramway road would have a 64-foot width on a 100-foot right of way. San Rafael, which could be a feeder street shunting north-south traffic from Indian or Palm Canyon Drive, would have a 64-foot width on 88-foot right of way.

The program would entail widening of the North Palm Canyon width, including the curb line. Esen said. The city engineer termed the proposal a plan for the future to prevent traffic tie-up with the development of the Tramway. A proposed Vista Chino interchange on Highway 99 northeast of Palm Springs is expected to increase northbound traffic loads approaching the Tramway road.

The plan, studied by the traffic advisory commission, was referred to the planning commission by the city council.

Sunburnt Homes to Be Razed

TWENTYNINE PALMS — The commanding general of the Marine Corps Base here has been authorized to dispose of Navy Housing known as Sunburnt Homes.

The housing consists of 34 housing units and several general use buildings, together with all utilities.

Disposal of the Sunburnt Homes housing project, which was built in 1942, is in keeping with long-range governmental plans to eliminate sub-standard housing for the various services. Completion of the project in the near future permits early disposal of these local sub-standard units which cannot be economically rehabilitated or maintained because of sub-standard construction characteristics and the deterioration due to age and use.

Present plans are to dispose of the buildings by destruction by "D" Company 7th Engineers after salvage of all useful materials and equipment.

Marines and their families presently housed in Sunburnt Homes will be re-located into quarters on the base prior to the commencement of destruction.

It will not be necessary to evict any family due to the necessity to vacate the buildings, since vacancies in on-base housing will be utilized to relocate the families, it was announced. It is planned to vacate all units and commence demolition not later than Sept. 1.

JFK Visit Seen

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — President Kennedy probably will visit Brazil beginning July 30, foreign minister Francisco San Thiago Dantas announced Friday. He said the date of the President's visit still is subject to final White House approval, however.

'Great Stories' Evening Set at Festival of Arts

Joan Woodbury Wilcoxon will present an evening of great stories Saturday May 19 as one of the weekend events presented by Our Lady of Riverside Servite Monks during their second annual Marian Festival of the Arts.

Mrs. Wilcoxon and her company opened the festival with a special program of poetry and painted masterpieces of the life of Mary called "Praise Her Name."

On this program Joan Wilcoxon will tell the ancient legend of the "Juggler of Notre Dame of Cluny" "The Happy Prince" by Oscar Wilde, "The Legend of the Black Madonna" by Margaret Apple-garth and "Mary the Mother of Jesus . . . as seen by Susannah of Nazareth" by Kahlil Gibran.

Sammy Howel soprano will sing negro spirituals between the stories.

The Festival galleries open at 6:30 p.m. and the program is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the patio of the cloisters.

Fly Control Ordinance Adopted

RIVERSIDE — A fly control ordinance has been adopted by the board of supervisors as an emergency measure, becoming immediately effective.

The ordinance makes it unlawful to permit the accumulation of matters which might cause the breeding of flies in such quantity as may endanger health or interfere with the comfort of persons who occupy property in the neighborhood.

The health officer is authorized to give written notice to anyone he deems is violating the fly breeding law and require that abatement be commenced immediately and completed within a specified reasonable time.

$300 Fine
Neglect or refusal to abate an excessive fly breeding condition is deemed a misdemeanor punishable on conviction by a fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment for not more than six months or both.

At the suggestion of Jeff Eaton of Neuvo, chairman of the Riverside County Farm Bureau's poultry division, a requirement was included in the ordinance that health inspectors "take reasonable precautions" to rid themselves of any possibility of carrying infection in going from one inspection area to another. He gave scrubbing of boots between inspections as an example of "disinfection."

Comparing the new county ordinance with the Riverside city fly control ordinance which had been suggested as a model, County Counsel Ray Sullivan declared, "I believe ours is a better ordinance, more specific and less difficult to enforce. It is more modern, more sweeping in its coverage of fly breeding places."

It's Adequate
Lloyd Irons, chief of the Division of Sanitation, urged immediate adoption of the ordinance as an emergency measure. "It is an adequate ordinance, easy to enforce and acceptable to the health department," he said, "and I believe it will accomplish its purpose."

Irons admitted that he will need more inspectors to enforce the ordinance. "We will be in more trouble than ever," he said, "unless the board of supervisors gives us more help."

"Just another example of people asking us to up the county budget and at the same time reduce taxes," observed Supervisor Norman Davis.

Horoscope Forecast

By CAROL RIGHTER

Thursday, May 17, 1962

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Until evening falls this is a day when many persons are apt to be trying to get more than their fair share of whatever benefits happen to be around. Make sure you are scrupulous in asking only your fair share of rights. But tonight a whole, fresh, new condition exists that brings you better judgment, ability to plan in larger, broader scope.

ARIES (Birthdays from Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — By gambling with security or personal relationships, you can lose much during A. M. However, new conditions come into play later that give you a chance to advance normally.

TAURUS (Birthdays from Apr. 20 to May 20) — Since higher-up and an associate disagree, you are apt to be quite disturbed throughout the day if you don't decide to remain neutral. Otherwise, tonight can then be happy romantically.

GEMINI (Birthdays from May 21 to June 21) — Though co-workers may endeavor to play some trick on you, rise above pettiness and don't blast 'em. Take it easy tonight in the bosom of close family ties. "Grow."

MOON CHILDREN (Birthdays from June 22 to July 21) — While day hours are not right for getting together with new friends and interesting outlets cannot be looked into, the evening is ideal to entertain distinguished new friends.

LEO (Birthdays from July 22 to Aug. 21) — This is one of those days when close ties seem to disagree with all you say and do. Evening, however, brings a definitely different attitude, if you leave as soon as they start to gripe.

VIRGO (Birthdays from Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) — Avoid arguments or accidents during A. M. by being careful. Go about your business quietly. Evening is excellent for social pleasures, relaxation.

Cathedral Rotarians Will Install

Missionary to Speak Here

CATHEDRAL CITY — Wayne Kiser will bow out as president of the Rotary Club here Saturday at 7 p.m. when installation ceremonies will be conducted for a new slate of officers.

Members and their wives — Rotary — Ann — will gather at Laurie's Steak Ranch for the ceremony to be conducted by James Cavett for President-elect, Phillip Kirkpatrick, a local electrical contractor.

Taking office with Kirkpatrick will be John Palmer, vice president; Camden Carpenter, secretary; Russell Hewitson, treasurer, and R. R. Buticane, sergeant-at-arms.

LIBRA (Birthdays from Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Take care you are neither extravagant nor extremely miserly during the day. Be moderate and cheerful. Listen to advice of a pal in P. M., who is enlightening.

SCORPIO (Birthdays from Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Though you may run up against snags where your personal affairs are concerned, be persistent and win. Evening is very fine for social pleasures you like.

SAGITTARIUS (Birthdays from Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — While you may want to run away from promises you have made, it is best to carry through loyally. You get fine breaks in the evening then, especially in personal affairs.

CAPRICORN (Birthdays from Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Arguments with friends, or being disloyal, can bring about dire results today. Be above reproach. Get together with clever individuals in P. M. Enjoy hobbies.

AQUARIUS (Birthdays from Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Work most efficiently now since authorities are watching you closely. Also, get credit in order. Impress higher-ups in P. M., with your intelligent handling of money.

PISCES (Birthdays from Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Don't leave duties in A. M., in order to follow some new lead that is unwarranted. Trust your own judgment in P. M., and make fine impression on right people. Show ability.

If Your Child Is Born Today — Be sure to give early fine training where ethics and morality are concerned so that pleasant relations can be established with fellow men. The best outlet here is the realm of business and finances, whether male or female, when out of school. There is a fine, strong will here, and few will deter your progeny from a set course of action.

'Liberty' Falls Flat With TV Sponsors

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The Statue of Liberty is going begging as the star of a projected television series.

Producer Joe Pasternak can't interest a sponsor in a show in which the famed lady of New York harbor greets a new group of immigrants each week.

"This series is about individuals who came to this country without money, property, friends or prospects," Pasternak said.

"All they had was hope inspired by the great statue."

Pasternak knows whereof he speaks. Since the days when the gravel-voiced producer was a poverty-stricken Hungarian youth fresh off the boat he has not forgotten the symbolism of Miss Liberty.

"The first time I saw her I was standing on the ship with tears in my eyes," he recalled. "All I had in the world was a straw hat, toothbrush and a hole in my pants."

Teenage Visions
"I was 17 years old and believed this country was populated by cowboys, Indians and gangsters."

Pasternak said that is the illusion millions of persons throughout the world still hold.

"This could be the show to demonstrate the real America," he said.

"I can't think of a better weapon to fight communism than to see the United States through the eyes of those who do not take it for granted—the immigrants."

"Each week would be a different story about a different person coming to America and it would follow their life story. I already have 40 stories ready to be made into scripts. And every show would be based on a real person."

"Just think of some of the unknown immigrants who became great Americans — Einstein, Andrew Carnegie, Knute Rockne, Jose Iturbi, Jean Hersholt, Irving Berlin, Al Jolson and lots more."

Produces "Jumbo"
Pasternak propped his feet on the desk of his office at MGM studios where he is producing "Jumbo" with Jimmy Durante and Doris Day.

"This is my first venture into television," he said. "And I am not in it for profit."

"I have offered to produce the series at no profit to myself or the studio. The response of individual stations and advertising agencies is good. But the sponsors aren't as enthusiastic."

"I'd like to have some big corporation which is interested in proving the worth of free enterprise sponsor this show to demonstrate how the system works."

"Just think of the millions of people in foreign countries who could see this show and get a better picture of the United States. We may forget it sometimes, but the Statue of Liberty is the most beloved lady in the world."

Boy, 15, Is Ranked Tops As Chessman

FARGO, N.D. (UPI)— Stephen Popel, 46, one of the 15 chess "masters" as ranked by the U.S. Chess Federation, has settled here as a French professor at North Dakota State University.

A native of the Ukraine, Popel fled the advance of the Russian armies in 1944, served some time in a German labor camp and moved at the end of the war to Paris, where he spent 10 years as a newspaperman and chess player. With all his activity, he had time to master seven languages and start a family of three children along the road to the chess board.

"Chess is a valuable, intellectual exercise," Popel said. "It's a neat combination of science, art and sport."

Popel should know. He reigned as chess champion of Paris from 1948 until he came to America in 1955. From his home at Detroit, the professor went out to win two tournaments at Milwaukee in 1958 and to win the Great Lakes Open Tournament at Chicago in 1960.

As a chess "master," Popel is one of the top 23 chess players in the country, as ranked by the U.S. Chess Federation. The rankings, based on games won, start at the top with "Grand Masters," of which there are eight in America. Then come the "masters," of which there are 15. The chess "Experts" rank just below the "masters."

Here in Fargo, the professor is getting to know his students and, on the side, he's looking for a challenger while he sharpens his game.

Reflective Plates

NEW YORK (UPI) — Nine states and the District of Columbia will issue automobile license plates of reflective material during 1962. In each case, either the numbers or the backgrounds glow brightly after dark. Delaware, Louisiana, Maine, Minnesota, New Mexico, North Dakota, West Virginia, and Wyoming are the states using the so-called "safety" plates.

The bride, who wore a white wedding gown with pink accessories, and carried pink and white carnations, was attended by Mrs. Jack Carlin. Mr. Carlin acted as best man.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Gutzman of Las Vegas. Following their honeymoon trip, the Lipperts Jr. will be at home in Canoga Park.

Pages in Fiesta Dresses Add Color to Convention

One of the highlights of every P.E.O. Convention is the entrance of the delegates who are dressed in keeping with the convention decor.

The 1962 convention held in Palm Springs at the Riviera, carried out the theme "Desert Treasures" and fifty pages were dressed in fiesta dresses in white and gold. Every meeting was opened with the group entering to the strains of "The Desert Song," with Mrs. Ruth Bonge at the organ and Mrs. Kathreen Prout at the piano.

Responsible for the designing of the dresses were two sisters from Chapter DO Riverside, Mrs. Dorothy Calvert, chairman and Mrs. Kathryn Rosenfelder, co-chairman. Local women acting as pages were D'Esta Williams, Virginia McDonald, Margaret Moak, Vera Hancher and Joan Coffey.

The meeting closed with all looking forward to the 1963 Convention which is to be held at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles. Representatives from the hostess chapters presented an invitation with a skit depicting a pot of gold

Spray on Color To Make Fabric Bright and New

Bright new colors for faded fabrics now come in aerosol containers. Upholstered sofas and chairs, car interiors, lampshades and draperies that have become dull and faded get a new lease on life with just the touch of a finger. The spray color covers stains, streaks and spots—and protects against wear, water and sun fading.

Chosen in a nationwide vote as Britain's prettiest village, Castle Combe is named for the castle whose ruins sit in the grove of trees above the church. The picturesque village is located 100 miles from London.

Britain's Prettiest Village

Centuries-Old Community Chosen By People In Nationwide Vote

CASTLE COMBE, a picture-book village nestled in the Cotswolds 100 miles west of London, has been voted the prettiest one in Britain following a poll conducted by newspapers and the British Broadcasting Corporation. The village has a population of 365.

Although the centuries-old town is without a single thatched roof, the moss-covered shingles and honey-colored stone foundations give Castle Combe, which means "Castle Valley," the appearance of a true Shakespearean village, which, in fact, it really is. Sir John Fastolf, one of the village's most famous sons, was immortalized by Shakespeare as Sir John Falstaff. Local legend has it that the Bard of Avon himself was a frequent visitor to Castle Combe.

The town lockup hasn't been used in years.

A mighty man is he. The village blacksmith, Leslie Cousins, shoes a farmer's horse.

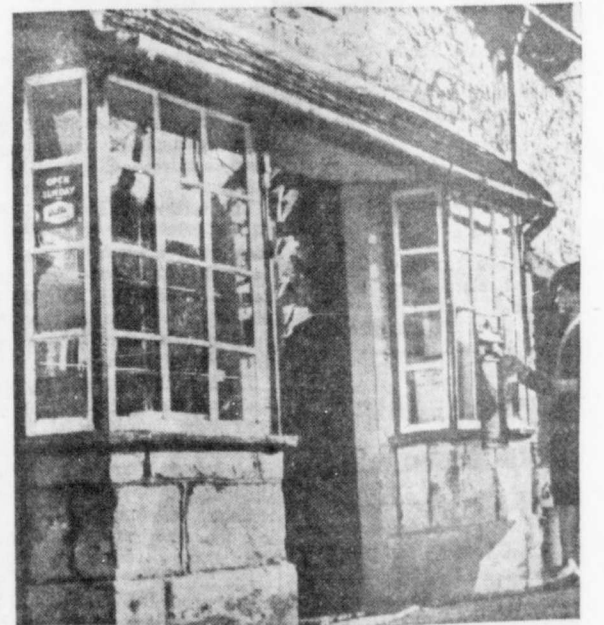

Mrs. Eels, who runs local store, is disturbed when items sell too fast. "Reordering is such a bother," she complains.

Proprietors of the local antique shop in Castle Combe, Mr. and Mrs. Beament Reynolds step out- side into sunlight to examine a piece of glassware. Shakespearean background fascinates visitors.

The post office is also a tobacco shop. Stone for buildings came from nearby quarries.

Residents Hear Two Candidates

THOUSAND PALMS — Thirty-six members and friends of the Property Owners' Association met at Mrs. George McEwen's home on Monte Vista, Friday night in potluck dinner style. Guest speakers were Harold S. Haskell, candidate for supervisor in District 4, and Joe Stone, a member of the citizens' committee, who discussed the need for a new Junior High School and the coming bond issue to be voted on in the coming election on June 5.

It was agreed that the Property Owners' would sponsor the opening of the swimming pool to members of the Thousand Palms Pool Club and their guests. Membership cards are to cost $10 for each family and must be presented each time the pool is used. It is hoped that enough membership cards will be sold so that the pool may be open from June 1 through September. Gus Tschumi was appointed chairman of the pool committee and was instructed to select two assistants.

Mrs. Edna Smith is spending the next week in Compton with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gild and her four grandchildren. Mrs. Smith will also visit her sister Helen Allen and daughter.

Wedding bells rang out for Benjamin Wollman and his bride on May 5th. Mrs. Wollman was Mrs. Iris Todd of Tejuca Canyon Road in Tejuca, who had been a family friend for several years. The happy couple will be at home on Sierra del Sol in the fall.

New home owners in our community are Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tisaw who are building a new home on Sierra del Sol and El Centro Way. They have been with us since last September. They came to the desert from Santa Anna.

Also welcomed back is past resident, Mrs. Mary Mills, who has decided to come back to her Thousand Palms Home on Arbol Real.

Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Paul (Steve and Shorty) Miller on their 47th wedding anniversary.

Miss Eve Finson of Calle Jessica has returned from a visit in La Jolla.

Police Office Girls Give Vital Identity Records

By JOHN LAW

Communications and records are the heart of a police department. An efficient operation requires that the officer in the field be able to learn immediately the identity, criminal background and possible "wants" on any suspect he may be observing or interrogating. His life may depend upon the immediate availability of this information.

In the records division over 40,000 fingerprint cards, submitted and reviewed by the FBI in Washington and the CII in Sacramento, are filed. The majority are of persons who have been arrested in Palm Springs and total 13,987 since the city was incorporated in 1938.

The balance have been printed under the terms of the ordinance No. 327, Art. 294 which refers to persons employed in certain occupations, and suspects who have been questioned or whose presence was considered dangerous to the community.

This subdivision is supervised by Lt. William Lux, a records and identification specialist who has been with the department for 21 years. Since 1954 when the employee registration ordinance was adopted more than 22,000 persons have been fingerprinted.

Through this screening process, designed to provide employers with some knowledge of the persons they hire, hundreds have been identified as "wanted" criminals. Other hundreds have declined to register, police officials say, and left the area rather than having their criminal records revealed.

The fingerprint provision is similar to those in Nevada and Florida, also resort areas, and has been copied by numerous other cities. While the Intelligence Detail, charged with the enforcement of liquor control, prostitution, narcotics, and gambling is administered through the Chief's office, department files contain pictures and biographies of known jewel and confidence operators and even internationally known criminals.

The Intelligence Detail is in constant communication with similar agencies in Los Angeles, Las Vegas, San Francisco, Phoenix, Chicago and New York following the movements of suspected and known thieves.

Busy Center

Operating with the constancy of a heart-throb the communications section, which also services the City Hall's 50 telephones receives an average of 645 calls each 24 hours; the front desk answers approximately 150 in-person inquiries and the radio dispatcher an average of 465 transmissions. Women are employed to a greater extent by the Palm Springs police than by other departments because of the administrative policy of placing as many sworn officers in the field as possible.

Hacks Plan Pageant for Valley Fete

YUCCA VALLEY — The Pioneer Hacks, local writers' club, have completed the script and the casting of the first Pageant to be staged in the Yucca Valley annual Grubstake Days program.

This historical sketch of the Hi-Desert is being written, produced and directed by local talent exclusively. Even the musical score is by local composers, including one song written especially for the Pageant.

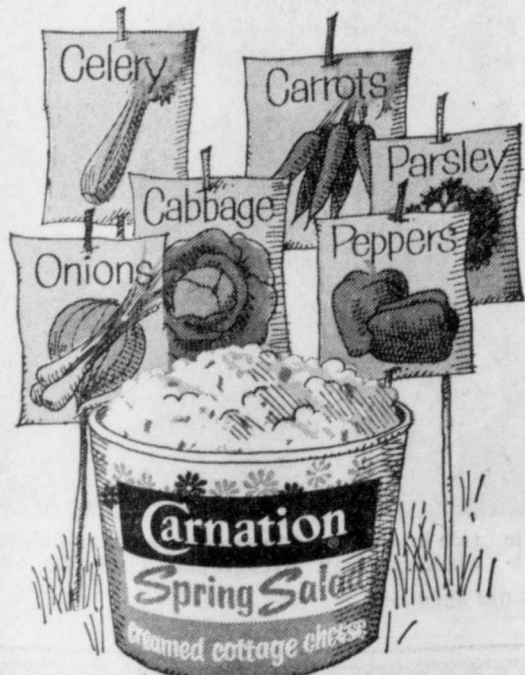

All organizations in the community were invited to take part in the pageant and the outstanding talent and willing cooperation is very gratifying to the writer's club members.

The Pageant will be presented at the Circle 8 Corral and old skating rink at Burnt Mountain on Friday and Saturday evenings, June 1 and 2. Rehearsals are being held regularly and two dress rehearsals will be scheduled for the last week in May.

Tickets will be available at the Chamber of Commerce office in Yucca Valley.

Simplified Golf

By Dale Anderson
Pro Manager
Palm Springs
Riviera Hotel

In this lesson we discuss the five iron.

It is the middle club and the training club. I advise my students to practice a great deal with his club. The average golfer does not try to hit hard with the five iron, so if you want rhythm and balance in your swing, practice with the good old five iron.

$50,000 L.A. 'Cap Tops Week at Hollywood Park

The $50,000 added Los Angeles Handicap at Hollywood Park Saturday will bring together four-and-twenty and Olden Times, the two top choices for "horse of the meeting" honors.

In addition to the seven-furlong Los Angeles, one of the three richest sprint races in the nation, Hollywood Park's racing program for the week will include the 10th runnings of two filly events. They

Angels Lose to Orioles

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Ken McBride, a rock of stability for Los Angeles in 1961, makes another attempt to pick up his second pitching win tonight against the Baltimore Orioles.

McBride, 1-3, was substituted for Bo Belinsky, 5-0, in the Los Angeles pitching rotation, with the latter starting Thursday in the final game of the series. That will leave Belinsky ready to pitch in rotation Tuesday against the Yankees.

Chuck Estrada, 2-3, is the choice for Baltimore in its bid to pick up a second straight win over the slumping Seraphim.

Los Angeles lost its third game in a row Tuesday night, a 7-1 disaster at the hands of Baltimore and rookie John (Boog) Powell. Powell hit two home runs to drive in four runs for the Orioles.

MGR. WORRIED

Dodgers Clip Colt 45s, 10-7

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Arms and the man would be an apt description today of perturbed Dodgers manager Walter Alton and his group of bedraggled, sore-limbed partially potent pitchers. Alton practically was scratching out the few hairs remaining on his head as he sought an answer to his pitching woes after the Dodgers Tuesday night used five hurlers in scrambling by the Houston Colts, 10-7.

Sure, Los Angeles won. And Alton had to be happy about that, especially after the way the Dodgers came from behind with a six-run outburst in the seventh inning for the victory.

But from the way the stoic Dodgers manager was talking, you'd almost have thought Los Angeles had lost.

Western Handicap Golf Tourney for Amateurs

The Western Amateur Handicap Golf Tournament, the largest and longest handicap tournament in southern California history, was announced today by Charles Pierce, president of Golf Tournaments, Inc.

It is open to both men and women, established and non-established handicap players. The qualifying rounds of 36 holes of medal play will be played at Green River Golf Club in Corona, during the 24 weeks between June 5 and Nov. 21. An entrant does not have to play consecutive rounds on the par 71, 6,400 yard course.

There are four divisions. All men having established handicaps from either the SGCA or Public Links will be placed in the following brackets: 0-4, 5-7, 8-10, 11-13, 14-16, 17-19, 20-22, 23 and over. All women with established handicaps from either the SGCA or Public Links will be placed in the following brackets: 0-4, 5-7, 8-10, 11-13, 14-16, 17-19, 20-22, 23-25, 26-29, 30-33, 34-36, 37 and over.

For the nonestablished handicap players, both men and women, handicaps will be established in the following way. Nine holes of their first round will be chosen at random. Five 4 par holes, two 3 par holes and two 5 par holes will be used. With a handicap established, the men will play in these brackets: 0-4, 5-7, 8-10, 11-13, 14-16, 17-19, 20-22, 23 and over and women in these brackets: 0-4, 5-7, 8-10, 11-13, 14-16, 17-19, 20-22, 23-25, 26-29, 30-33, 34-36, 37 and over.

At the end of the first 24 weeks of qualifying, 10 winners from each bracket in each division, a total of 400, will play in the semifinals, the dates and details to be announced at a later date. Upon qualifying for the semi, a player is entitled to play in the Western Handicap Championship to be held in the spring of 1963. Champions will be crowned in each bracket of each division.

Entry blanks can be obtained at the pro shop at all southern California courses. The $10 entry fee includes registration and green fees. They may be also obtained by writing Golf Tournaments, Inc., 2780 W. Lincoln Ave., Anaheim.

ONE OF PIRATES GREATEST

Kiner Satisfied With BB Records He Wrote

NEW YORK (UPI)—The lively ball major league hitters are crashing out of the park with ever greater frequency causes no wishful thinking today in modest Ralph Kiner.

As trim and fit as when he was setting home run records which still stand, Kiner regards his feats with a detached satisfaction. Nor have the years given him a feeling that he might have done better with a more threatening lineup built around him.

"I don't put too much stress on having had a weak lineup," he says. "Our players weren't that bad."

But you have to wonder what Kiner might have done in a power-packed lineup such as that of the New York Yankees. Because during the eight years in which he was a Pittsburgh Pirate institution, the team finished eighth three times, seventh on three occasions, again was sixth and once climbed all the way up to fourth. Three times big Ralph led the league in bases on balls and, despite the fact that he was the number one pitching target in the Pirate lineup, his home run production was fantastic.

Starting with his rookie year of 1946, Kiner for seven straight seasons won or tied for the National League home run title. He bashed 54 in 1949 for his production mark and set a league record of hitting 40 or more home runs in five seasons.

On a personal level, it's somewhat amusing that Kiner, who now broadcasts games for the New York Mets, would rather discuss tennis.

Wife Ranked High

That's because his wife, the former Nancy Chaffee, was the nation's fourth ranking woman star when they were married in 1961. And, while she won three U.S. indoor championships in a row, being a home run slugger, Kiner figured that he could easily outdo his pretty wife at her own game. "I told her it couldn't be too tough," he grinned. "So I started to practice real hard. At first she was beating me 6-0. Then I got a little better and she was only winning 6-2. Finally I got it down to 6-4 and even carried her to 7-5."

Eventually he beat her—three times. "Each time just one month before we had each of our three children," he grinned. "That tennis can be a tough game, let me tell you."

Satisfied With Career

Kiner, who retired from the baseball playing field at the end of 1955 because of a bad back, in looking over his career wouldn't change a thing. "Talk all you want to about how nice it would have been to have played in a power lineup like that of the Yankees," he analyzed. "But I'd never have done as well as I did if I had to play in Yankee Stadium. That's along poke to the left field seats for a right-handed hitter."

As one of those who chased Babe Ruth's old record of 60 home runs in a season, Kiner has admiration for the 61 clouted last season by Roger Maris even though it required an extended season. But he doesn't believe that Maris will be able to come closer to his new record this time around.

"I figure him for 40 plus this season," said Kiner, who at 39 appears trim enough to swing a bat himself. "Chasing Ruth can really wear you out and, after passing him, the man has to slack off and take a bit of a rest."

Secretly, Kiner has to wish that he could have been the man to smash Ruth's record. But the figures he wrote in the record books are understandably satisfactory.

Famed Angling Experts Address Fishing Clinic

Angling in the fabulous Salton Sea will be the theme of the Western Outdoors fishing clinic to be held Thursday afternoon, May 17, between 4-6 p.m. at the Outdoorsman, 82-880 Miles Ave., Indio.

Two well known angling authorities, John Gartner and Ray Cannon, and Dr. Boyd Walker, the Father of the Salton Sea fishery, will be guest speakers at the gala fishing extravaganza.

John Gartner and Ray Cannon, editor and Gulf fishing editor respectively of Western Outdoors magazine, are scheduled to speak on angling opportunities available to Salton Sea fishermen. Both are frequent visitors to this area and will give first hand accounts of new fishing techniques they have uncovered.

In addition to the talks they will demonstrate tackle techniques, give a display of fly fishing and answer questions from the audience on all phases of fishing and hunting.

Gartner is the author of over 250 fishing and hunting articles in national publications and has had seven books published on outdoor subjects, including a 500-page almanac for California sportsmen.

Ray Cannon is perhaps the greatest living authority on fishing in the Gulf of California and in addition to the many articles he has written for Western Outdoors, his by-line has appeared frequently in many of the national outdoor publications.

Jim Corbell, former national casting champion, is also expected to give an exhibition at the Indio fishing clinic.

The Indio clinic is the third in a series sponsored by Western Outdoors in cooperation with the Garcia Fishing Tackle Company. Several Garcia tackle prizes will be awarded to sportsmen attending.

Stu Gummer, owner of The Outdoorsman, invites all sportsmen to the free clinic.

Golf Course Apron Isn't Like One in Handy Kitchen

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (UPI)—An apron is one thing in the kitchen something else in golf.

The difference in definitions also applies to carpets, to irons and to hooks.

Across this desk today came a set of daffy explanations of standard golf terms, as defined in the mind of a woman who's never golfed and thinks a chip is a break in her fingernail polish. They're the brainchild of Morgo Coley and Sam Snead, the famous professional tournament golfer and head pro at the Greenbrier Country Club in White Sulphur Spring, W.Va.

To Snead, giving lessons to the novice, and to Miss Coley, doing some mind-reading, here are some of the definitions:

Apron—Aunt Matilda's coming tomorrow.

Bingle, Bangle, Bungle — My charm bracelet's caught. Birdie, Eagle—Duck! Bogey—That nasty man. Bunker—That's where the Nazis hid.

Carpet—Check dining room rug. Chip—My manicure's ruined. Choke up—The car won't start. Divors—Like trivets? Duffer—Take off your hat. Fairway—Heckuva long walk. Fore—Is my hem even? Frog's hair—The hair at the back of my neck never takes a permanent.

Hook—Oops, where's a safety pin? Iron—Did I leave it plugged in? Lie—Good or bad, there's no excuse.

Match play—Male versus female. Putters—Time on my hands. Shank—My feet hurt. Slice — With butter and jam, please.

Sudden death—It's a sad world. Tee off—Blow my top.

STOCKHOLDERS HEAR

Fox Loss: $22 Million

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stockholders of 20th Century Fox displayed mixed emotions Tuesday when told the company lost $22.5 million last year and was sinking $30 million into the off-delayed movie "Cleopatra."

President Spyros P. Skouras told a capacity crowd at the company's annual meeting here the costly film is nearing completion in Rome. The statement brought applause.

Earlier, shareholders were critical of the reported $1 to $3 million salary being paid actress Elizabeth Taylor, who has the title role in the movie.

"It's sheer lunacy to pay $1 million to any star," complained Mrs. Irene Martin of Hollywood, Calif. Gloria Parker of Brooklyn, N.Y., suggested Miss Taylor be made a director. She said the actress was making so much money she ought to be one. The management's director slate was rejected, however.

Skouras said 20th Century Fox was embarking on an economy drive. He said he was taking a voluntary $45,000 pay cut from his $139,000 salary.

Skouras tried briefly to quiet the unruly stockholders at one point by telling them they would be shown some scenes from several new 20th Century films.

"We came here on business—not to be entertained," shouted one shareholder.

Skouras told the estimated 300 stockholders the gross from "Cleopatra" would be $150 million when it is released next February. He asked them to be patient and said within a week Miss Taylor would be needed only for some close-up scenes.

It was this remark that earned Skouras the only applause he received during the three-hour session.

Blizzard Freezes Twelve

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—A flash blizzard, a weather rarity for this time of year, lashed a company of soldiers on night maneuvers on a high, bald ridge in the Chugach Mountains Tuesday. Three died and nine others were hospitalized.

The troops, members of Company C of the 1st Battle Group of the 23rd Infantry at nearby Ft. Richardson, were on a three-day mountain exercise about eight miles southeast of here.

The blizzard, described as a late season freak by Army officials, but nevertheless packing winds of more than 70 miles an hour, caught the soldiers at about 1 a.m. as they were crossing the crest of a 4,000-foot ridge.

The 12 men became separated from the 200-man company during the storm. A search was started as soon as they were missed, but two were dead when found and another was pronounced dead on arrival at the Elmendorf Air Force Base Hospital.

The first group of missing men was found in a helicopter.

The nine men hospitalized for exposure and extreme fatigue were identified as Sgt. Leroy Jonson, Columbus, Ga.; Sgt. George Pullin, Philadelphia; Spec. 5 George M. Chitty, Adrian, Mo.; Spec. 4

Anthony Ruffin, Richmond, Va.; Pfc. Tyrone Smith, Bartley, W. Va.; Pfc. John W. Quick, Baltimore; Pfc. Donald Boyd, Miami, Fla.; Pvt. Robert J. Kakareka, Wayne, N.J., and Capt. Stanley Pore, Clarendon Hills, Ill., commander of the company.

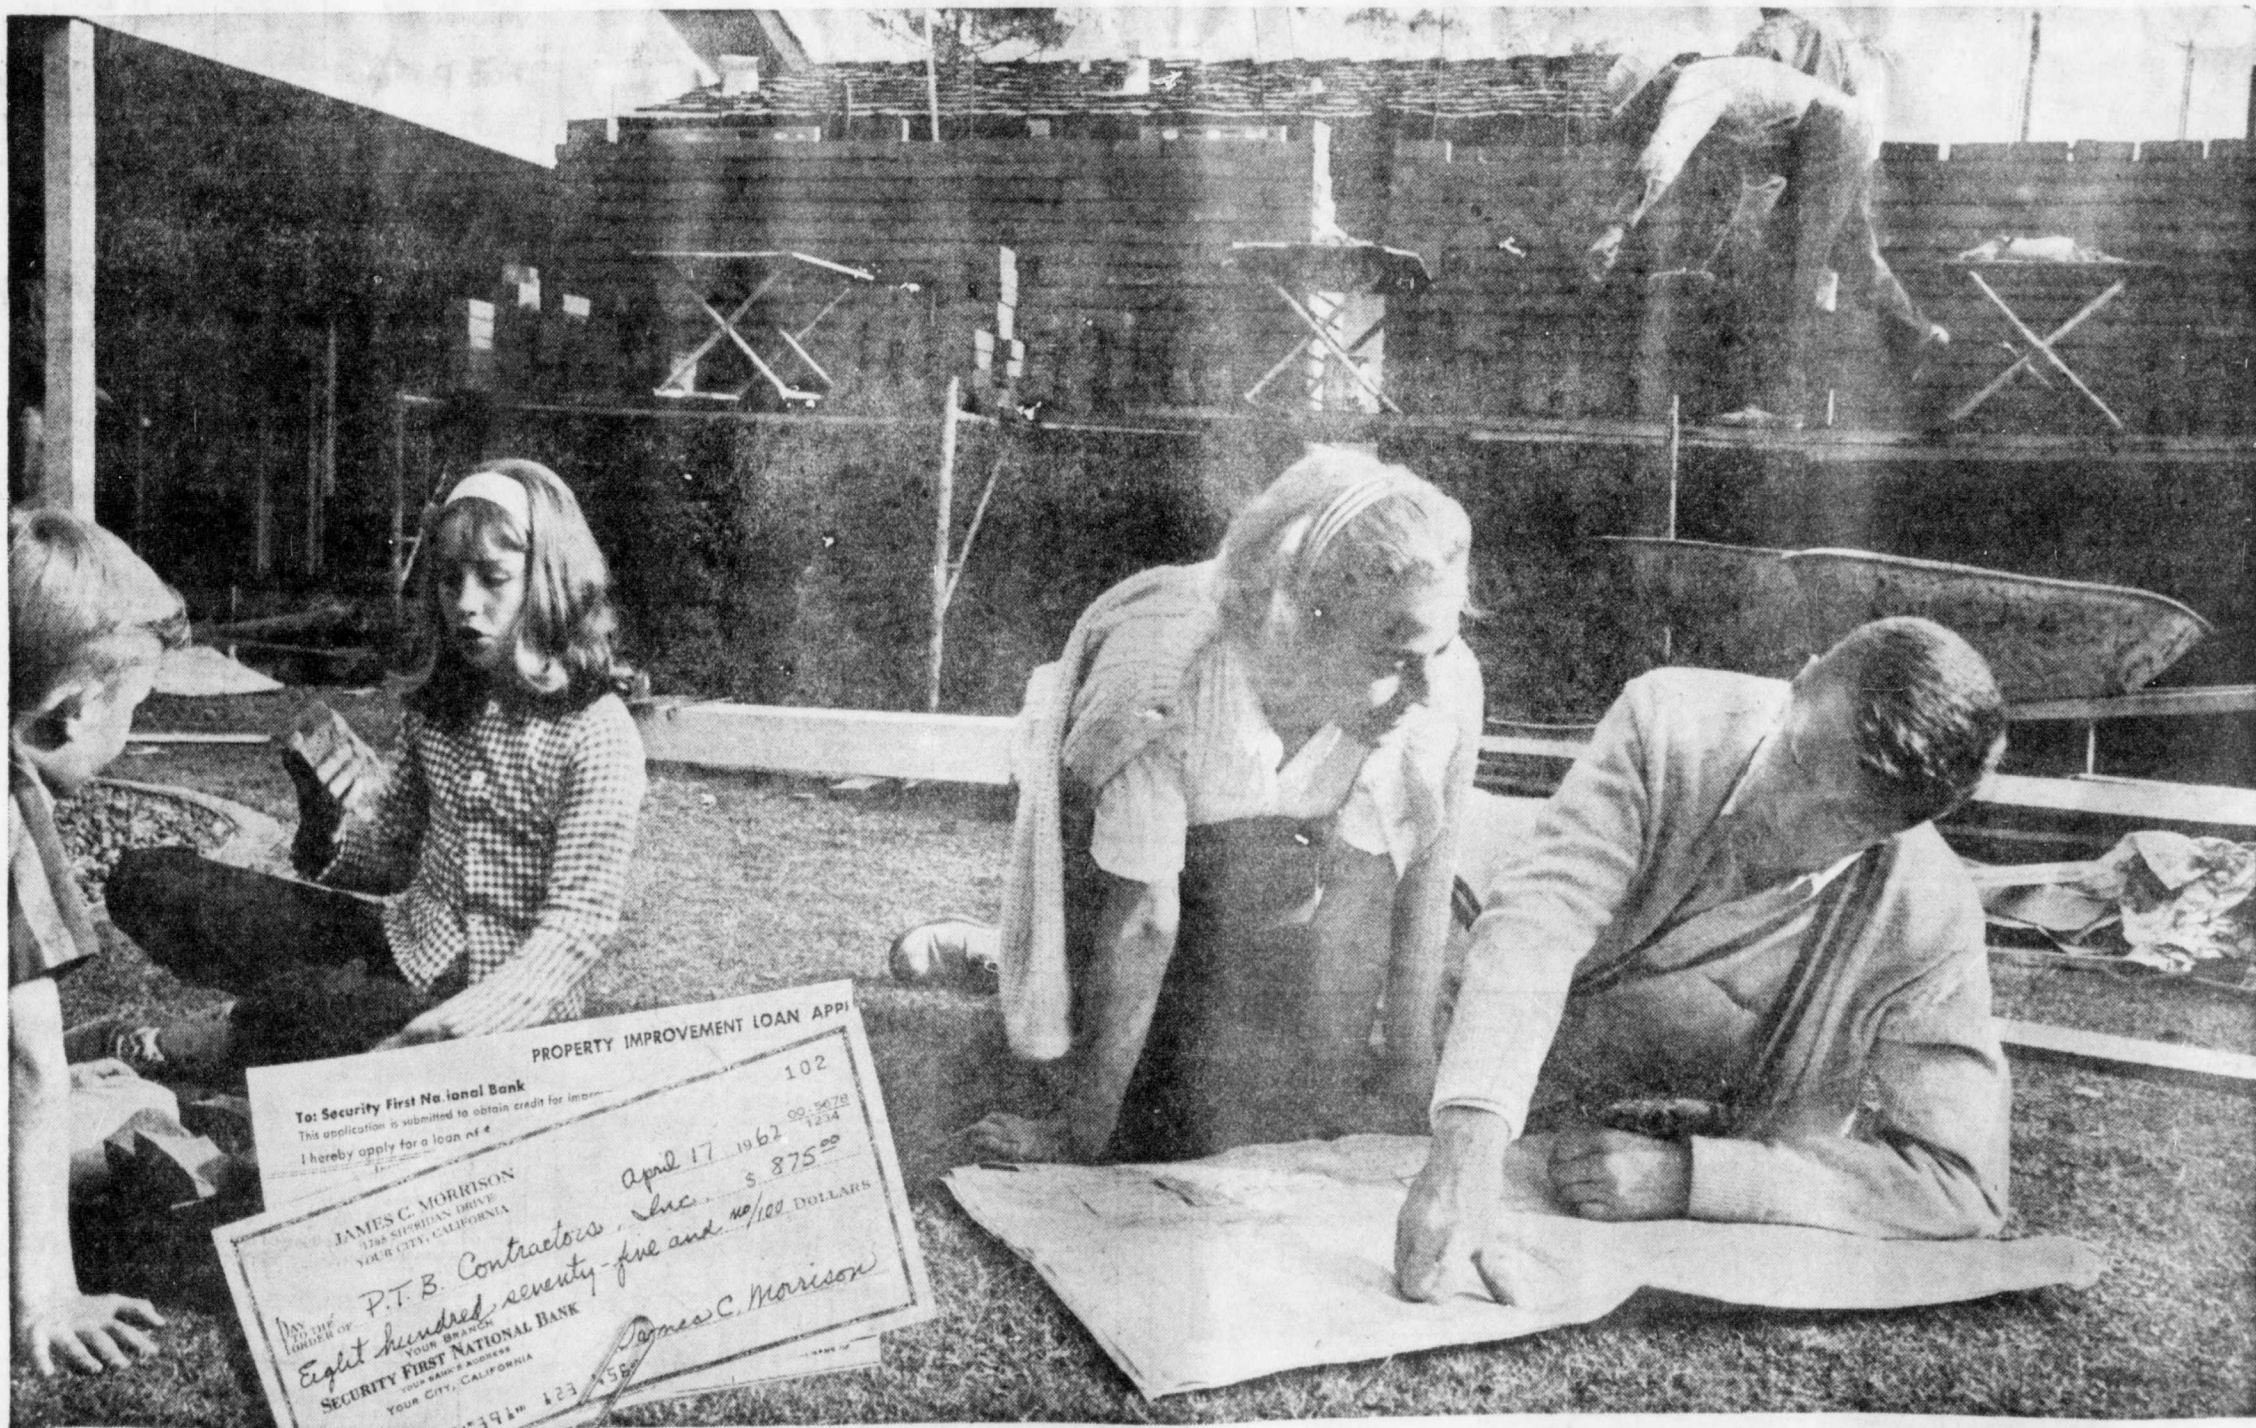

None of the hospitalized was in serious condition, Army officials said.

Names of the dead were being withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Martin Urges Public Airing on Estes Deal

Full public hearings on the Billy Sol Estes Washington Department of Agriculture scandals were urged Tuesday in a letter to President Kennedy by Republican Congressional candidate Pat Martin.

"While I realize that these hearings may be embarrassing to the Democratic Party, I hope you will speak out against corruption in high places now as you did with far less justification against steel price increases," Martin's letter said.

Republicans Competing For Ballots

By JAMES C. ANDERSON
SACRAMENTO (UPI)—All the excitement in the June 5th primary election is not restricted to the races for Governor and U.S. Senator.

There are sharp contests going on among Republicans to pick a nominee to take on Democratic Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson and Attorney General Stanley Mosk next November.

Even veteran Republican Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan, 64, finds himself facing opposition from within his own party for the primary nomination.

Sharing interest with the clash between Richard M. Nixon and Joseph C. Shell for the GOP nomination for governor is a three-way Republican fight for the U.S. Senate are these state-wide contests in the primary:

McKesson Challenges Anderson
Lieutenant Governor Anderson faces a challenge for the Democratic nomination from William B. McKesson, 66, district attorney of Los Angeles County. On the Republican side Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco and State Sen. John F. McCarthy of Marin County are paired in a duel for the GOP nomination. A third Democrat in the race is Harold Brannin Treskunoff, a San Francisco waiter.

Attorney General Mosk is unopposed for his party's nomination but three Republicans are seeking the GOP endorsement. They are state Sen. Richard J. Dolwig of Atherton, Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen of Los Gatos and Superior Judge Tom Cookley of Marin County.

Seven Seek Secretary's Post
Secretary of State Four Democrats and three Republicans including Jordan are in the race. Democrats include Joseph Lewis, a Los Angeles lawyer; Don Rose of Pasadena; William H. Ware of Los Angeles and Frank J. Zawacki of Sacramento. Jordan's GOP opposition includes William E. Gilliss, Sacramento, and Dalegor W. Sucheski, San Francisco. Treasurer Bert A. Betts, the incumbent Democrat, is unopposed in June for his party's nomination. Republican contenders are Assemblyman John A. Basterud of San Francisco and Darven L. Padlock of Glendale. Padlock is running as a Conservative. Leslie E. Rice, a Los Angeles accountant, also filed on the Prohibition Party ticket.

Control No Problem
The other statewide office on the June ballot, Controller, poses no problem for the June voters. Alan Cranston, the Democratic incumbent, is unopposed for his party's nomination and Assemblyman Bruce V. Reagan of Pasadena was the only Republican who filed. They'll settle the issue next November. The Prohibition Party put up Frank G. H. Stevens, Pasadena minister, for Controller.

Two of the four members of the State Board of Equalization are the luckiest of all. They have no opposition of any sort in June and can consider themselves re-elected to four-year terms.

Change Is Orderly Progress

World-famous architect Charles Luckman told the Palm Springs city council Monday night that "When you're face-to-face with change, you can't ignore it or stop it, you've got to control it."

For this desert resort area, he couldn't have been more right.

And when George Alexander, who plans a king-size hotel-convention hall-shopping mall development for downtown Palm Springs along Luckman's ideas, replied to a council question with "I want action," he couldn't have been more right.

Utterly right, too, was the spontaneous applause Alexander's remark drew from the standing-room-only audience of over 300 citizens.

The council approved in principle and subject to satisfactory solutions of the technical problems, a high rise eight-story hotel development plan of Luckman's for builder George Alexander. That got applause, too.

Luckman merely phrased, more pitifully and to a packed house audience, what the majority of Palm Springs citizens have been feeling for a long while.

As he said, change doesn't necessarily mean an upheaval, which no one wants. It's the orderly and inevitable progression of a community. It can and should preserve and enhance the traditional characteristics of that community — those things cherished by the residents and attractive to visitors and investments.

It Was Only a Penny Then

There was much grumbling among automobile owners in Palm Springs about 30 years ago. What was the nation coming to, was the irked question at the few and scattered gasoline service stations of the day.

They had watched with some dismay as the price of a gallon of gasoline edged up toward 19 cents because of the California 3-cent tax per gallon. And here the federal government was cutting in on the act by slapping on another penny to the levy. Was getting so it was pretty costly to take that Sunday spin, they muttered.

It was in 1932 that Uncle Sam got his foot in the door and his hand in the motorist's pocket. He had waited for 13 years, at that, before he realized that he was over-looking the rich tax mine the horseless carriages were providing.

The first gasoline tax in the nation — one cent per gallon — was imposed in 1919 in Oregon. It didn't take long before California got the idea and followed suit. By 1930, every state in the union was levying a tax on motor fuel.

At first, there was little objection to the tax. In fact, in 1919 and the early 20s there

Street paving to replace dust, sewage systems to replace outhouses, high style shops to go hand-in-hand with western wear displays, golf courses to augment a bridge path recreation program — these all represent changes in the Palm Springs scene.

For those who wish and cherish it, the leisurely desert way of life hasn't been destroyed, any more than steel and glass and pre-stressed concrete have destroyed wood as a building material. They each have their place and the richness and tradition of wood is enhanced by the utility of modern materials.

So, this wonderful community of ours is facing another change. On the face of it, the Alexander proposal would provide fine hotel facilities, a convention hall for over 1,000 delegates, an opening of Belardo Road to remove a traffic bottleneck, and a shopping mall to give new life to downtown Palm Springs.

He's entitled to an answer just as fast as the bare minimum of legal requirements can be met, without the imposition of red tape and nit-fiddling delays. $10 million dollars won't wait.

The council, apparently by its policy declaration Monday, is going to move on this one and get Alexander the action he wants.

On the face of it, that's what the public wants, too.

were't too many people affected.

It was only when the tax gradually crept upward that the grumbling began. When the federal government slapped on its first one-cent tax, the state tax was three cents. That four-cent levy drew a howl — even if the money was going for better roads.

From little acorns mighty oak trees grow and that holds true for that mild one-cent tax of 33 years ago.

In 1962, for every gallon of gasoline you buy, you pay 10 cents in tax — six to California and four to Uncle Sam. In a way, we are more fortunate than some with around one-third of the price of a gallon of gasoline going for taxes.

The tax is much higher in many states and, for the country as a whole, the state-federal tax comes to almost 50 per cent of the pre-tax cost of regular gas. No luxury, much less an absolute necessity, carries so heavy an excise tax as this.

The original intent of the gasoline tax served its purpose. It put the nation on wheels.

But, as is the case with every good thing, it can be pushed too far.

Many a woman
Who loves her spouse
Never will trust him
Around the house

You know, they think he's a lovable old coot, a good provider and one to brag about when the girls get together at a kaffeeklatch. They clothe his faults in a sort of gentle humor like they use when they talk about their grandchildren. They really don't think he's dumb.

MOSTLY, it's his bumbling antics in the kitchen that draw the resigned laughs. Of course, some husbands are kitchen wizards and can set an unbeatable table from soup to apple pie a la mode. And it's all their own handiwork except, perhaps, la mode. They are the elite minority.

The majority, however, are hard put to find the right button to push when they want to boil water. That's me.

I'M CLASSIFIED as one of the helpless type on the domestic front. I don't mind. I avoid a lot of women's chores that way.

Chief complaint voiced by a lot of wives is that the wage earner may be adept at his job, neat, everything in order and at his finger tips when he wants it, but not at home.

In the refrigerator he'll impatiently move the catsup bottle out of his way four times when that is what he was looking for in the first place.

AND IN HIS LITTLE corner of his own clothes closet, he'll pass up a half dozen freshly-laundered and ironed shirts to reach into a dark recess for a comfortable one with two pockets.

Then he'll have to remove his pencils, glasses, cigarettes, matches and illegible notes because it's the only unironed shirt in the house, looks terrible and, besides, it has seen its day and has been earmarked to join the dust clouds.

NOW, I AM inordinately fond of grapefruit juice. I like grapefruit, too, but everytime I use that little dingus to separate the segments for neat eating I foul up my glasses and can't see. And if I take them off, I can't see either. My eyes burn. So I buy juice by the can.

The other day Mrs. G took off for an overnight stay with an aunt in another town. She left a flock of notes full of instructions in strategic places because she has the mistaken impression my kitchen IQ is sub-zero. She's right.

SHE DIDN'T WANT me to feel under-privileged. The instructions made things easy. Like this one about the grapefruit juice:

"You never seem to find anything in the refrigerator so I put the grapefruit juice on the top shelf where you won't have to bend over. It's in a bottle marked MILK and the cover says CHILI SAUCE."

The juice in the grapefruit container is Orange juice. You don't like that. Leave it alone. Now, you should have no trouble.

So I drank orange juice.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: I strenuously disagree with your advice to "No Chopin." There is no better way to kill a child's interest in music than to force him to take lessons and practice when he would rather be doing something else. As a boy I had considerable talent and might have made music my career, except for the seven years I was forced to take lessons. This prevented me from ever becoming a decent pianist. I think "No Chopin" should be allowed to forget the piano until he has a natural desire to take it up. — MIGHT-HAVE-BEEN CHOPIN

DEAR MIGHT: The best year for learning are the youthful years. And if children are permitted to put off the study of math, science, history, grammar, religion "and" music until they have a "natural desire" to learn, many would never learn. I would like to know how a child with musical talent can develop it without instruction and practice. And so would millions of parents.

DEAR ABBY: We have a problem with our women's bowling league. We want to know how long a woman, who is pregnant, should be allowed to stay on the team. We want to set down a rule, but find it very difficult. Can you, or any experienced lady bowlers help us? —LADY BOWLERS

Remember When

May 16, 1952

City Treasurer Robert Peterson told the City Council that the parking meters, installed three years before, had just about paid for themselves and the receipts will hereafter go for off-street parking projects.

Fearing a rash of fires in unoccupied homes while the owners were away, Fire Marshal Warren Heath urged people to get rid of trash and turn off the electricity before leaving.

H. L. Gogarty said his Desert Air Hotel would remain open all summer.

May 16, 1942

Palm Springs Post, 519, American Legion, said they would send five boys to Boys' State this year and started a contest to choose them.

The Field Club was the site for the season's final meeting of the Polo Club, featured by a steak dinner. Col. and Mrs. A.B. Jones of the army's new hospital at El Mirador, were special guests.

May 16, 1932

Mr. and Mrs. John R. E. Chaffey left for Los Angeles to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Shannon entertained for several friends from Banning.

Rumbling trainloads of rock were being rushed to Imperial Valley to strengthen canal levees as the Colorado River reached its greatest flow in many years.

DEAR BOWLERS: The very thought of a pregnant woman bowling makes my back ache. Why must you have a rule? Let each pregnant bowler bowl as long as her doctor allows her to.

DEAR ABBY: Congratulations on your opinion of the athlete who cried when he lost. You said, "There are no good losers. Just good actors."

Having participated in, coached and watched athletic competition for almost 30 years, I can back you up. The old cliché: "It doesn't matter if you win or lose, but how you played the game," makes about as much sense as the doctor saying, "It doesn't matter if you live or die, but how I perform the operation."

Very truly yours,
BERKELEY

DEAR ABBY: I enjoyed the discussion pro and con in your column about double beds and twin beds. My husband kept complaining that I was too fat and I crowded him in our big double bed. So he went out and bought twin beds. Now he sleeps with me in "my" twin bed because he gets "lonesome." —REALLY CROWDED

DEAR ABBY: I am a normal teen-aged girl of 15. Like any other girl I like to talk on the telephone when I get home from school. I never talk more than two hours. My mother says that is too long, yet she doesn't stop me. Do you think two hours is too long to talk to friends? —PHONE BUG

DEAR PHONE BUG: Indeed I DO. About an hour and forty-five minutes too long, to be exact.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are separated and I am expecting. I am getting a divorce as soon as the baby is born. How should I word the birth announcements? Should I say, "Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Brown announce the birth," etc? —SEPARATED AND EXPECTING

DEAR S. AND E.: Under the awkward circumstances, I suggest you skip the formal announcements. Write a personal note to those you wish to inform.

How's the world treating you? For a personal, unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to "Abby", care of this paper.

Cambodia Now Hears Voice of America

NEW YORK—One way to learn what the Voice of America is up to these days is to acquire a knowledge of Khmer. That's the language of the people of Cambodia, and the latest tongue to be used by the Voice in its effort to tell the peoples of the world our story.

Cambodians will get the news, news analyses, reports on life in America, important developments in science and other fields, and interviews with Cambodians visiting the U.S. Americans will be prohibited from hearing what we have to say to Cambodia.

It's the law. Nothing the Voice or the U.S. Information Agency puts out can be spread before Americans. The Congress is afraid that some president, present or future, might utilize the government propaganda services for his own political welfare at home. Hence, the beams and literature are pointed elsewhere in some tongues never heard in this land. Khmer, let's say.

Cleopatra Comes High

A scout fresh back from Rome reports that the final cost of "Cleopatra" will approach $60,000,000, including advertising and distribution bills. But the men who are picking up the tab feel that it will make a lot of money, nevertheless.

Twentieth Century Fox's great headache, of course, is Elizabeth Taylor.

"There's never been anything like this before," he tells us. "No one dares to lecture her or try to talk her for fear that she'll do something desperate, and destroy the film and the investors. She's a very spoiled child of 30. Obviously, some deal has been made with Burton to string along with her, for the sake of the picture. He looks like a fellow who'd like to bolt."

One of the top men at Fox, who'd like to strangle her, flew to Rome last week, but gave her a diamond bracelet instead.

Mainly responsible for the fact that the picture has long since gone into "over-time." That means that she gets $50,000 a week, in addition to the million dollars advanced at the time she signed up for the part, and the first million of the picture's profits.

Liz better test that prop asp in her final scene, to be sure it isn't the mecoy.

Takes a Dim View

In his dim-view-taking of America's high altitude thermonuclear testing, the esteemed British scientist prof. Sir Bernard Lovell declared it is the work of "a small group of military scientists, unknown and unidentified to the world at large, who have persuaded their masters to make a series of huge nuclear gambles under the guise of defensive necessity."

Sounds spooky. He may be referring to the Aerospace Systems division of the air force, some of whose top planners are never mentioned in the stories dealing with the division's work. It is reasonable to assume, too, that some of these men are under special guard, as were the top physicists who worked on the first atom bomb.

There is a basic conflict of interests here. Prof. Lovell is concerned with what he feels is the possibility of "grave moral and material consequences which would stem from disregard of the future of astronomical progress." He deplored the air force's effort to encircle the earth with millions of copper needles for military communications. The H-test on high must be viewed with dismay, he says, because they will interfere with processes—the radiative "envelope" around the earth, for example — before the "delicate tools of the true scientist" can probe those mysteries.

Military people are much more concerned with what Russia is learning out there. This involves the future of freedom, and that takes precedence they feel.

That difference of opinion could become the most colossal issue of our times.

Long and Painstaking

A friend prods. "Well, I see your church elected a mulatto a saint. Sounds a bit political to me, in these times." Shouldn't St. Martin De Porres, illegitimate son of a Spanish knight and a freed Peruvian Indian slave girl, was first proposed for canonization more than 300 years ago, when the world wasn't very much interested in advancing half-castes. He was decreed blessed in 1937, and it took 125 additional years for full sainthood. It's a somewhat painstaking process. Among those who have been investigated and rejected for centuries is Christopher Columbus.

Sol Hurok, the New York impresario, who spent three weeks in Moscow negotiating the United States - Soviet cultural exchange agreement signed recently in Washington, has arranged for Igor Stravinsky to make a tour of his native Russia next September.

Reports from Moscow indicate that Russian music, art and literary circles are highly excited over the news and well they may be, for Igor Stravinsky is regarded by many as the greatest composer alive today.

Stravinsky left Russia in 1909 and has been back only once, and that briefly, since then. That was in 1914. He has lived in the United States since 1939 and has been a United States citizen since 1945.

The Soviet Ministry of Culture has given Stravinsky carte blanche to arrange a series of concerts as he sees fit. This is interesting in light of the fact Stravinsky's music was denounced in Stalin's day as "bourgeois and corrupt." Since Stalin's death more and more Russian orchestras have been playing Stravinsky's compositions.

Stravinsky's projected tour, directing orchestras in Russia, is another demonstration that cultural exchange is a two-way street. Too often, we tend to think in terms of what the Russians get out of sending cultural delegation to this country. We should not forget that the United States profits when its delegations go to Russia.

Kennedy's Talk Trips Newsman

By MARRIMAN SMITH
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Back-
stairs at the White House:
President Kennedy has developed a new form of speech composition which raises his words to the correspondents attempting to chronicle his words, but adds immeasurably to the freshness and verve of his talk.

Instead of preparing an advance text and adhering to it in actual delivery, he has long been known for virtually abandoning carefully written prose and veering off extemporaneously.

Now, he's beginning to abandon even prepared "excerpts." What he likes to do is this:

Prepare extensive, typed notes on a number of subjects that may appear to him. Then, at the actual appearance, usually a dinner, he listens to the speakers before him and scribbles industriously as ideas strike him while others are talking.

Thus, when Kennedy rises to speak, his content is minutes-fresh and his topical references are tailored adroitly to the audience before him.

Envy Of Professionals

He seems to be becoming increasingly facile at playing off on the remarks of others. Some of the best professional comedians in show business—Bob Hope, Joey
Bishop, Danny Thomas and Elliott
Reed, to name a few—have seen this trait put to effective use.

In each case, the comedian appeared in a show for the President at a banquet and Kennedy spoke at the end of the evening.
And in each case, he ripped off a string of toppers that had the professionals envious and their writers nervous.

He uses topical material, sometimes truly inside local matters, to effective advantage. Speaking in Milwaukee the other night, he fished from his pile of papers a penned note dating back to his 1960 campaign in Wisconsin.

In effect, it was a promissory note by Kennedy to visit the village of Mukwonago. It seems candidate Kennedy in 1960 was invited to the village. He sent the chief officer of the town, William Herling, a written promise. In the note, the President explained he could not accept the village invitation to speak because he had to address a steelworkers meeting in Pittsburgh, but would go to Mukwonago at a later date.

Forgoes Advance Text
"I hate to think how many of these are distributed all over Wisconsin," the President said, "and I am going to have to go. You may have to give me several years, but I will go."

En route to Milwaukee last weekend to address a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner, the President

"EXTREMISTS IN POLITICS" will be the subject of a talk by Milton A. Senn, director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, Pacific Southwest Region, on Friday, May 18, at 8:15 p.m. at Temple Isaiah. A staff member of the Anti-Defamation League for more than 20 years, Senn practiced law in Chicago prior to joining the League. During World War II, he served with the Counter-Intelligence Corps in England and France, and commanded a CIC team in Germany.

New Site Selected for Palm Valley School

Kenneth Kirk, President of the Palm Valley Education Foundation has announced the acquisition of a 25 acre school site on Country Club Drive and Del Sol Road in Palm Desert.

The Board officers consisting of Kenneth Kirk, President, Arthur
E. Bailey, Vice President, Mrs. O.
Earl Coffman, a secretary and George V. Berkey, treasurer have been looking for a new location for the school for months and feel that this location is ideal, in as much as it is in the center of their student residential area, and just a mile from the new junior college.

The school founded 10 years ago by Headmaster J. Blake Field is fast outgrowing its present site.

planned and had prepared an advance text of his speech. But then he decided to drop the documentary approach and speak entirely from notes.

"In this way," a friend told him, "you don't have to get your speech cleared by the Pentagon."
He smiled broadly at the banquet head table and returned to scribbling notes to himself, minutes before he spoke.

Communists Recruiting Flunked Students From West Germany

By WELLINGTON LONG

BOON (UPI) — Communist East Germany is recruiting converts among Asian and African students who fail to pass their examinations in West German schools.

The Communist recruitment drive is getting into high gear just at the time West German educators are considering raising entrance requirements and passing marks for colored students.

In just a year, the Communists have managed to entice about 200 colored students away from West German schools, which had about 21,000 foreign students, most of them from Asia and Africa, at the beginning of 1962.

The contest for colored students is one more level at which the struggle for supremacy in Germany is carried on. So far, West Germany is well ahead on points. But East German recruitment may rise in the near future as West German school administrators act to prevent overcrowding and lowering of educational standards in their own establishments.

On Lower Level

Students leaving the Asian and African secondary schools rarely have reached the levels of their West European or American counterparts.

Thousands of such students nevertheless are clamoring to get into European technical high schools and universities. They want to become doctors, engineers and lawyers.

Of the 21,000 foreign students now enrolled in German technical high schools and universities, it is estimated, only 4,000 will graduate.

Heinrich Pfeiffer, manager of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation which finances research by foreign scientists, recently suggested a national standard of language and other qualifications which foreign students would have to meet to gain admission to any West German institution, and perhaps a tutoring system for those unable to meet the standards.

He also proposed that foreign medical students receive their degrees only after they have served a two-year internship either here or abroad.

Leave Unprepared

"Much misunderstanding has arisen," Pfeiffer explained, "because medical students graduated from a German university return to their homelands claiming they are full-fledged doctors, but are unable to deal properly with the practical problems facing them. In this way, the reputation of German medicine has not rarely been damaged abroad."

Most of the agents of East Germany's Communist regime sowing their seed among the thousands who fail their examinations or other requirements in West Germany are Asian and African students already enrolled in East German schools. One source says that at least one such agent is at work at each West German university.

The recruiting agents argue Asians and Africans fail to pass examinations in West German schools only because they are colored.

"In East Germany," one was quoted as promising, "none of us are failed. All get their diplomas."

BANKERS FIND:

Urban Renewal Will Cost $35 Billion

Financial Gossip

By JESSE BOGUE

NEW YORK (UPI) — A group of bankers in leading cities has completed a study on the status of urban renewal.

The study was made by the Committee on Urban Renewal of the Association of Reserve City Bankers, headed by William L. Day, chairman of the Board, the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Co., Philadelphia.

The committee found that a minimum of $35 billion will be spent on urban renewal in the next eight to 10 years, and expressed hope that the figure could be higher.

Generally, the committee found, the overall renewal program is off to a slow start despite a provision for "ample funds" by Congress. It cited New York, Pitts-Burgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cleveland, St. Louis and Detroit for accomplishments or "comprehensive plans" to date.

Philadelphia, it said, showed how well urban renewal can be reflected on the real estate tax base. The committee said it will realize a net increase of $268 million in assessed valuation of real estate by 1970, with increased revenues of over $11 million a year.

In making suggestions for the future of urban renewal, the committee found that in every city where there has been real progress there have been active citizens groups working in close cooperation with elected officials; where this citizen participation did not exist, urban renewal activities are hard to find. It urged bankers who may have been inactive in the program to help out in their communities.

Electric Toothbrushes May Pack Heavy Shock

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Food and Drug Administration has warned purchasers of Vibra Denta electric toothbrushes that the devices are capable of transmitting severe or even fatal electric shock to the user if dropped in water.

The FDA said it had seized 224 of the toothbrushes May 8 in New Orleans. But it said that 50,000 Vibra Denta electrical toothbrushes and gum massagers, distributed since last February by the Chase Manufacturing Co., New York City, are in commercial channels. It said steps were being taken to remove the devices from the market.

The FDA said in a statement that the possibility of shock was due to motor and cord units that were not sealed.

The device was described as a vibrator about the size and shape of an electric razor. The toothbrush attachments and the finger-shaped gum massager fit individually on to a shaft extending from one end of the vibrator.

The FDA accused the company in Federal Court in New Orleans of failing to warn of the shock hazard. It also charged the firm with "falsely representing that the motor unit and cord unit are sealed."

Additionally, the FDA accused the company of falsely representing that the device "helps the user to reach every tooth surface to remove food and debris that often cause tooth decay and that it offers the best in complete home dental treatment."

Lethal Radiation Danger Awaits Earth's Astronauts

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An almost certain death awaits the astronaut who flies for more than 24 hours in parts of the earth-circling Van Allen radiation belt.

The warning about the lethal dangers of the wide ring of radiation came from its discoverer, Dr. James A. Van Allen, during a closed meeting of a House appropriations subcommittee. The testimony was made public today.

The University of Iowa professor told the congressmen that radiation readings from high-flying satellites indicated the part of the belt stretching from 2,000 to about 40,000 miles above the earth was "uninhabitable."

"Anyone flying in this inner region for as much as a day would very likely have a fatal dose of radiation in any present type spacecraft," he said.

Van Allen stressed, however, that the ring was not an absolute barrier to sending a team of space explorers to the moon.

"I do not wish to leave the impression that the radiation belt constitutes a barrier in any absolute sense to extending our space flight capability and our space flight program," he said.

Van Allen said men could travel to the moon because they would spend "only a few hours in the intense radiation area and during that time the cumulative dosage is not severe."

Students Seek Reinstatement Of Ohio Frogs

TOLEDO, Ohio (UPI)—University of Toledo students are out to regain the prestige Ohio lost in 1959 when it became the first and only state in the nation ever to be barred from international frog jumping championships.

Members of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity at the university have responded to an invitation from Frogtown, Calif., to participate in the Calaveras County Fair Jumping Frog Jubilee. They are preparing to ship the Ohio entry in the contest, obtained from the Toledo Zoo, to the West Coast by air freight.

The International Board of Frog Jumpers put Ohio on probation for one year when members of the fraternity staged their world championship frog flop and turtle trot in 1959.
